Prizes:

As well as the cups and tankards, detailed above, certificates are also presented to the first three in each category.

The Cups are held for a period of one year and the tankards are for retention.

Entry:

To be eligible to enter, competitors must be members of the Suffolk Agricultural Association. The competition is open to both farmers who own their own enterprise and to contract farmers. This may include an owner using a contractor to carry out operations and/or a contractor who wishes to enter their whole business, which is the land he either owns or hires as a base and the contract farming operation radiates from it.

Judges:

The judges of the 2023 competition come from Norfolk and Essex. They are all farmers with a range of farming enterprises and other business interests including many diversification projects.

Judging Days:

The Judges will visit all farms on either Monday 19 June or Tuesday 20 June. Competitors must make arrangements for someone to be available to meet the judges on either of these days. Competitors will be advised in writing the week prior to the competition of the date and time the judges will be visiting. The judges will be escorted by two stewards.

Judging Criteria:

In evaluating the competitors farms, the judges will take account of the following areas:

1. Business Management

The focus of the judging must be the whole business and its overall management which will include enterprise management (crops, livestock and other enterprises), buying and marketing policies, employment, machinery investment, use of capital, health and safety and buildings investment.

2. Sustainability of Business and Land Occupation

- General business plan including product development, business integration and long-term investment.
- Approach to stewardship of the land and environment for the future.

3. Social/Community Involvement

This may include employment activities, involvement with local education, facilities for clubs, public land use and access and other roles – public or personal, i.e. stewarding at the Suffolk Show.

Presentations:

An Awards Dinner will be held on Thursday 19 October where winners of the Suffolk Farm Business Competition will be announced. The Dinner will take place at Trinity Park and all competitors will receive complimentary tickets for two guests to the event, with the opportunity to book additional places.

RULES OF THE COMPETITION

1. The competition is restricted to Members of the Suffolk Agricultural Association farming within the County of Suffolk, who were elected before the 1 January and have paid their subscription for the current year.
2. Competitors must enter all the land under one Holding Number, which they occupy within the County.
3. All land entered must have been farmed by the Competitor at least since Michaelmas immediately prior to the Competition.
4. Entries must be submitted to the Association by Monday 5 June.
5. The Judges will be appointed by the Association and the inspection of farms will take place in June.
6. Final Judging of each class will be undertaken by two Judges, each residing outside the County.
7. The Judges shall decide the number of prizes in each class and, in the absence of sufficient merit, all or any of the prizes may be withheld.
8. The Challenge Cups are offered as Perpetual Trophies and these, along with the Certificates, will be presented at the Awards Dinner. Each winner will hold the Cup for a period of one year.
9. Any question of eligibility or dispute or protest arising out of the Competition shall be dealt with by the Council of the Association, whose decision shall be final.
